There are only a few musicians in the world of jazz who are able to live this pure, deepgoing and uncompromising form of free improvisation on stage. And a great many consequences have come out of English jazz clubs and they belong to the circle around Paul Rogers and Paul Dunmall. It was 3 very intensive and fantastic days near the Austrian/ Hungarian border, highlighted by these outstanding musicians celebrating together with young Austrian talents. It was a 10 hour long listening pleasure at the Chilli Jazz Festival with Limmitationes.
