

As One Does

DUNMALL SIEGEL PURSGLOVE SANDERS

One books a recording studio as one does, knowing that if you get the right musicians involved it should be a great session of music making, and hey presto as if by magic here it is.

There certainly was magic on this day. Julian and myself have been talking about playing together for several years now and finally we have managed it.

What an outstanding tenor player he is, I so enjoyed playing with him and of course Mark and Percy are always at the top of there game, superb musicians.

So listen and let the music uplift you as it did for us. peace and joy
