

PAUL DUNMALL,
PAUL ROGERS,
MARK SANDERS:

DEEP WHOLE
(FMRC243-0807)

Paul Dunmall (tenor, soprano saxophones),
Paul Rogers (7-string bass),
Mark Sanders (drums)

Continuing the series of small-group improvisations by saxophonist Paul Dunmall that has featured impressive performances by the likes of Peter Brandt (Occasional Rain, Deep Well), Tony Marsh (Occasional Rain), Tony Orrell and Jim Barr (Deep Sea), comes Deep Whole. Featuring excellent drummer/percussionist Mark Sanders and regular Dunmall partner in crime Paul Rogers on bass, this is a more than welcome recording of three of Britain's top flight improvisers in top flight form.

As a trio of performers, these three have a wealth of ideas to play with, and really dig 'deep', creating a tour de force of improvisation that will leave any listener energized and truly captivated!!!

TRACKLISTINGS:

1. Deep Whole
2. Wholeness
3. Emptiness

Recorded at University of West England, Bristol
on 25th April 2006
Engineer: Stephen Allan
Produced for FMR by Trevor Taylor
CD Design: Trevor Taylor & Ewan Rigg

