British guitarist Jez Franks has been on the UK scene for a number of years, becoming one of Britain's guitarists of choice for many of Europe's most respected jazz groups.

FMR are proud to present Jez Franks' Compassionate Dictatorship, an accomplished quartet of excellent musicians with whom Jez has an instinctive rapport. His electric and baritone guitars share a wonderful dialogue with Tori Freestone's saxophone, and the dazzling backing of Ben Reynolds and Jasper Hoiby on drums and bass respectively create a winning formula for this unique and spellbinding guitar quartet.
